

Rising Stars Awards

RS class prizes	Class winners in RS designated classes in the Gold show and Bronze show will receive a prize.
RS Champion & Reserve	Scores from horse/rider combinations from each age category determine one championship per category (walk/trot, Training, First, Second, FEI Children, FEI Pony).
	Gold
	Training JR	First JR	Second JR
	FEI Children	FEI Pony
	Bronze
	Walk-Trot (13&under)	Training (13&under)	First (13&under)
	Walk-Trot (14-18)	Training (14-18)	First (14-18)
RS Team Competition	To foster sportsmanship and teamwork, Gold and/or Bronze riders 18 years and younger and competing in RS designated classes can create teams. The top three teams will receive an award. Team rules: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Each RS horse/rider combination can be on one team only. Teams may be made up of any level or mixed levels of horse/rider combinations competing in RS-designated classes. ○ Each team will consist of a minimum of 3 horse/rider combinations, maximum of 4 horse/rider combinations. ○ All teams need to be named and declared at the show office no later than the start of competition on Friday (Gold or Bronze, whichever starts first). ○ Team scores will be calculated on test 2 of each level on Saturday, e.g. Training level test 2; for FEI it will be Pony individual test Children's team test. ○ The top three scores of each team will count. The points from the top three scores will be added together to determine the three top placed teams for awards.
RS Sportsmanship Award	Awarded to the RS (Gold or Bronze) participant that demonstrates a high level of sportsmanship, based on nominations by their peers. Forms for nominations will be in the show office.
RS Equitation Championship	Champion and Reserve Champion awarded to the winners of a special Equitation Championship ride-off as part of a Gala on Saturday evening.		